Markets & Drivers: Ukraine

Lessons learned from the war in Ukraine

- Return to high intensity conventional warfare
- Enormous demand for munitions
- Air force alone does not win wars
- European land forces are inadequately equipped
- GDP target of defence spending of at least 2% necessary

- Passive and active protection (top attack protection) is a decisive combat advantage
- Local maintenance hub important to reduce repair times
- Gun- and rocket-based air defence is crucial
- Resilience against electronic warfare

Markets & Drivers: Ukraine

First industry partner with local footprint in Ukraine

Markets & Drivers: Cooperations

Forging new and strengthening existing alliances

Air defence, missiles, aeronautic systems, simulation & training

Various technology areas, e.g. new visual systems for tactical vehicles

1 The previous year's figures for the comparative period 2020 have been restated accordingly, applying IFRS 5.

2 The definition of the key financial management indicator operating result was adjusted retrospectively in the third quarter of 2023. The figure for the previous year 2022 was also adjusted accordingly.

3 Financial liabilities less cash and cash equivalents.

4 The previous year's figures for 2022 were restated as a result of the amended schedule for the disposal of and the retrospective at-equity valuation of the investment in Shriram Pistons & Rings Ltd.

5 EBIT/average capital employed. The prior-year figure for 2021 has been adjusted to reflect the new calculation methodology.

6 The previous year figure for 2023 has been adjusted due to the change in the definition of ROCE in fiscal 2024.

Disclaimer

This presentation contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to Rheinmetall’s financial condition, results of operations and businesses and certain of Rheinmetall’s plans and objectives. These forward-looking statements reflect the current views of Rheinmetall’s management with respect to future events.

In particular, such forward-looking statements include the financial guidance contained in the outlook.

Forward-looking statements are sometimes, but not always, identified by their use of a date in the future or such words as “will”, “anticipates”, “aims”, “could”, “may”, “should”, “expects”, “believes”, “intends”, “plans” or “targets”. By their nature, forward-looking statements are inherently predictive, speculative and involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. In particular, such factors may have a material adverse effect on the costs and revenue development of Rheinmetall. Further, the economic downturn in Rheinmetall’s markets, and changes in interest and currency exchange rates, may also have an impact on Rheinmetall’s business development and the availability of financing on favorable conditions. The factors that could affect Rheinmetall’s future financial results are discussed more fully in Rheinmetall’s most recent annual and quarterly reports which can be found on its website at www.rheinmetall.com.

All written or oral forward-looking statements attributable to Rheinmetall or any group company of Rheinmetall or any persons acting on their behalf contained in or made in connection with this presentation are expressly qualified in their entirety by factors of the kind referred to above. No assurances can be given that the forward-looking statements in this presentation will be realized. Except as otherwise stated herein and as may be required to comply with applicable law and regulations, Rheinmetall does not intend to update these forward-looking statements and does not undertake any obligation to do so.

This presentation does not constitute an offering of securities or otherwise constitute an invitation or inducement to any person to underwrite, subscribe for or otherwise acquire or dispose of securities in Rheinmetall AG or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries.

Rheinmetall AG and its affiliates are neither associated with nor provide any support to American Depositary Receipts programs (ADR) or comparable offerings or investment schemes related to shares in Rheinmetall AG in the United States of America or any other jurisdiction. Therefore, neither Rheinmetall AG nor any of its affiliates has and or will accept any responsibility or liability whatsoever in relation to such ADR programs or comparable investment schemes.

Please note that all figures in this presentation have been rounded on a standalone basis. This can result in minor differences when adding figures together or calculating % shares.
